

EXPERIENCE TIOGA

Situated on the mighty Susquehanna River and sprawling out onto rural farmlands, the colonial history and the pastoral beauty of the county make for a charming and rewarding antiquing experience.

Not only will you make wonderful discoveries, but you will enjoy a quaint, small-town experience. In the Villages of Owego and Waverly, antique shops are located in enchanting, walkable downtowns with shops, galleries and eateries to enrich your visit. Restaurants, pubs, diners, farm stores, markets, parks, historic sites, orchards, shops, horse racing and gambling, can all be found when traveling around the county.

Exceptional lodging ranges from locally owned and chain hotels, to bed and breakfasts with Victorian, luxury, rustic and country themes. No matter what your taste, you will find a comfortable place to rest and rejuvenate in Tioga County.
